— SPARKLING WINE —

For more than a two decade, the House of Arras has been identifying and developing the ideal vineyard sites for world-class sparkling wine. This journey has led the House of Arras to call the ancient soils and cold climate of Tasmania home. Its climate is significantly cooler than the mainland, with long summer daylight and maritime influences, which are Ideal conditions for long, slow and consistent fruit development.

2008	Arras Grand Vintage	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	140
------	---------------------	-------------------------	-----

The appearance is crystal clear with an ultrafine and persistent bead, medium straw with a bright yellow gold lustre. The bouquet expresses an enticing aroma of grapefruit, jasmine flowers, sea brine and lychee. The palate has great elegance and poise with complex nuances of exotic spice, truffle, meringue and natural yoghurt.

2009	Arras Blanc de Blanc	Chardonnay	140
------	----------------------	------------	-----

------	----------------------	------------	-----

The Blanc de Blancs has brilliant clarity, medium straw with a bright gold lustre. Lifted aromas of sea spray, brioche, toasted almond and jasmine flower. The seamless palate is intense and complex with great length and flavour persistence. The palate exhibits flavours reminiscent of brioche, sautéed mushroom, nougat and fresh oyster. The wine has exquisite poise with balance of dosage, natural acidity and fine tannin. A remarkably intense wine of brilliant vibrancy which is recognised hallmarks of this style.

2007	Arras Rosé	Pinot Noir Chardonnay	140
------	------------	-------------------------	-----

------	------------	-------------------------	-----

Arras Rose displays enticing aromas of fresh red berry fruits, married to the complexity of extended tirage maturation, along with brioche, nougat and spices. On the palate, bright sand fresh strawberry fruit dominate the initial flavour rush, which gives away to complex secondary characters of truffle and yeast. This wine has great structural elegance with an impeccable balance of tannin natural acidity and dosage.

2002	Arras EJ Carr Late Disgorged	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	275
------	------------------------------	-------------------------	-----

1998	Arras EJ Carr Late Disgorged	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	20th Anniversary	390
------	------------------------------	-------------------------	------------------	-----

A true prestige cuvée based on attributes of pristine Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from the finest Tasmanian vineyards, crystal clear in appearance with an enticing fine and persistent bead. This wine is medium deep straw in colour with a fresh gold hue. The bouquet displays lifted nuances of brown lime, butter biscuit and oyster, whilst the palate reveals a complex flavour profile, exhibiting characters of honey, nougat, sourdough toast and truffle. A richly flavoured and intriguing palate with a strong natural acid backbone, elegant structure and great persistence. The wine retains a brilliant freshness and vibrancy the hallmark of the House of Arras.

— SPARKLING WINE —

The climatic conditions of the Jansz vineyard rival the famed French wine region of Champagne. In fact, it was originally with French contribution that Jansz became Tasmania's first sparkling made using the traditional Méthode Champenoise. Today we call it, Méthode Tasmanoise. It's the essence of a partnership between the environment and our winemaker. Just as the cool Tasmanian climate creates spectacular beauty in nature, it is also instrumental in the creation of art in bottles.

2011	Jansz Blanc de Blanc	Chardonnay	135
2010	Jansz Blanc de Blanc	Chardonnay	140

A beautiful complex and layered wine. Pale gold in colour with an exceptionally fine bead. A nose of truffles, delicate toast, Amaretti biscuits and white chocolate with a refined palate of nougat and roast almonds.

2014	Jansz Rosé	Pinot Noir Chardonnay	130
2013	Jansz Rosé	Pinot Noir Chardonnay	140

The pale colour resembles pink diamonds. Powerful aromas of toasted brioche, quince blossom and rose petals. A beautifully rich palate of vibrant red fruits and Turkish delight, creaminess and a touch of fine tannin set up a mouth-watering finish.

2013	Jansz Vintage Cuvée	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	135

2003	Jansz Vintage Cuvée	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	160
2002	Jansz Vintage Cuvée	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	160

Gorgeous yeast ageing greets the nose along with toast, brioche and cream, whilst the tongue embraces quince, honeysuckle and classic notes of ripe lemon. Expect a hint of strawberry and rosewater from the Pinot Noir, too.

2007	Jansz Late Disgorged	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	140
2003	Jansz Late Disgorged	Chardonnay Pinot Noir	150

Pale gold with a fine persistent bead. Complex nose with intense notes of sea spray and shucked oysters, brioche and truffle. Richly layered palate with flavours of caramelised pears, truffled honey and toasted almonds.

"If ever a new winery was born with blue blood in its veins, Tolpuddle would have to be it." James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2014

Tolpuddle Vineyard was established in 1988 and it took its name from the Tolpuddle Martyrs: English convicts transported to Tasmania for forming an agricultural union. The leader of the Martyrs, George Loveless, served some of his sentence working on a property near Richmond, part of which is now Tolpuddle Vineyard.

The vineyard is planted with mature Chardonnay and Pinot Noir vines, facing north-east, and sloping gently up from Back Tea Tree Road. The soil is light silica over sandstone and of moderate vigour, ensuring well-balanced vines producing grapes of great flavour and intensity.

In 2016 Tolpuddle Vineyard won the inaugural Tasmanian Vineyard of the Year award, reflecting the performance of this unique and distinguished site.

Martin Shaw and Michael Hill Smith MW purchased the vineyard in 2011 and are fully committed to seeing Tolpuddle Vineyard recognised as one of Australia's great single vineyards.

PRIVATE CELLAR OF PETER ALTHAUS – DOMAINE A | STONEY VINEYARD

When one speaks of pioneers of the Tasmanian wine industry, it has to be said that Peter Althaus and his wines are a significant chapter of that story.

Peter and Ruth Althaus, are Swiss natives who packed up their entire lives and travelled the world searching for the perfect location to create Bordeaux style blends. After discovering Stoney Vineyard in the heart of the Coal River Valley, they took what was initially a 1.5 acre block to the 12 hectares they now have under vine, 75% of which is Cabernet Sauvignon grapes.

A large part of Peter’s decision-making process was the mixture of truly unique and ancient soils at Stoney Vineyard, founded on 200-million-year-old Jurassic Dolerite. Domaine A lies on a north facing slope, that enjoys a temperate maritime climate and extended sunlight hours. It is situated in a rain shadow with prevailing westerly weather patterns, plus dry, northerly summer/autumn winds that accentuate the ripening process.

LARK WHISKY

The vision of producing Tasmanian malt whisky was born on a trout fishing trip in the highlands of Tasmania. Bill's father-in-law, Max, produced a wonderful bottle of single malt, and as they enjoyed a drink in the park at Bothwell, surrounded by Georgian buildings, barley fields and the gentle flowing of the Clyde River, Bill remarked to Max, "I wonder why there isn't anyone making malt whisky in Tasmania". Lark Distillery was the first licensed distillery in Tasmania since 1839. It was established in 1992 by Bill Lark, who is known as 'The Godfather' of Tasmanian whisky.

Lark Single Malt Classic Cask | 43%

30 | 30ml

Lark Single Malt Whisky at 43% ABV is the flagship product of the Lark Distillery. It is distilled with Tasmanian (Franklin) barley, malted at the Cascade Brewery. The whisky is double distilled in locally crafted copper-pot stills and aged in small, 100 litre oak casks.

Nose: Golden syrup and vanilla with hints of oranges and grapefruit. Plum pudding, Christmas cake, cinnamon sticks and nutmeg

Palate: Sweet vanilla transforms into a heady combination of orange peel, butterscotch, cloves, nutmeg and grapefruit.

Finish: Butterscotch and citrus notes.

Lark Single Malt | Cask Strength | 58%

40 | 30ml

Nose: Cinnamon, nutmeg, liquorice and orange peel soften to vanilla, butterscotch and balanced oaky aromas. These develop further into furniture polish, Tasmanian peat smoke and grapefruit .

Palate: Intense vanilla and Christmas cake sweetness is integrated with the characteristic citrus and butterscotch flavours expected from a Lark single malt whisky. The palate is rich with stewed fruits and maple syrup ,with complex citrus and spices before giving way to oak and stewed fruits.

Finish: Citrus, spices and toffee notes linger and develop into a warming finish that stays long after the last sip.

Lark Single Malt | Distiller's Selection | 46%

Nose: Beautiful bourbon cask nose with confectionary sweetness, fruits and some slight mineral saltiness.

Palate: Very delicate and light, but silky and subtly sweet.

Finish: Light and surprisingly long. Dry oak with some nice peat and ongoing confectionary creamy sweetness.

LARK WHISKY.*Lark Distillery | The Wolf Release | 54%*50 | 30ml

A unique exchange of ideas, passion and casks. Lark Distillery whisky casks were carefully selected by our friends at Wolf of the Willows decanted, and sent on a journey across the Bass Strait. Filled with the Wolf's Imperial Johnny Smoked Porter and left to age, they worked their magic before being emptied and returned to Tasmania, to be refilled with Lark single malt whisky. The result is the Wolf Release: a unique single malt whisky that reflects an adventurous and collaborative journey.

Nose: A faraway grass fire leads into sweet pineapple and charred lemon. Varnished oak drives into toffee apple with a heavy cocoa chocolate.

Palate: Liquid lychee paves the way for kiwi fruit and raspberry jubes. The fruits develop into a milky banana milo, brewed over a campfire.

Finish: Strong American Oak vanilla evolves to honeycomb enveloped by chocolate, which lingers before transforming into dark chocolate with hints of smoke.

Nose: Cherries and dark chocolate develop into Christmas cake, orange, lemons and mandarins, finishing with smoke and applewood. A beast!

Palate: The palate follows the nose with black cherries and citrus, candied oranges and lemon. Toffee and vanilla notes are topped with sweet coffee and marmalade.

Slight saltiness leads into a long, orangey finish.

Finish: Oranges, marmalade, grapefruit and tannin. A massive citrus bomb.

Nose: Heady aromas of grapes, pineapple and orange drift upwards. Blackcurrants, mandarin, dried apricots, strawberries and apples complete a huge fruit salad.

Vanilla custard is drizzled on top.

Palate: Fruits evolve into jelly beans. Vanilla, grapefruit, raspberry, chocolate, spearmint and lemon-flavoured jelly beans with the odd marshmallow.

Finish: Oak, smoke and vanilla.

Nose: Citrus on butterscotch. Plum pudding, peat smoke and ash hide behind a body of oranges, ANZAC biscuits, cherries, maple syrup and butter.

Palate: Port, peat smoke, orange oil and caramel are engulfed by dark chocolate and cinnamon spice.

Finish: Port, oak and peat. Robust.

30 | 30ml

Made up of French Oak and American Oak, this is a delicious single malt whisky that fits in as easily around the BBQ on a Sunday afternoon as it does in front of a fire with a cigar.

Nose: Vanilla driven perfume, floral fruit, soft spice and cloves.

Palate: Soft, creamy, well structured and balanced. Herbal, then some spices and honey. English candy notes and a hint of pear.

Finish: Well-rounded fruity finish of a medium length with hints of honey and milk chocolate

45 | 30ml

On 29th November, 2005, a 300L American Oak Barrel labelled TD0060 was filled with malted barley spirit distilled from the highest quality Tasmanian ingredients.

A decade later we are now ready to experience the first whisky to be both distilled and bottled under the current ownership of Tasmania Distillery.

Exhibiting trademark distillery characteristics of sweet malt and vanilla, this particular single cask bottling shows a rich and integrated complexity beyond its years.

While both spicy and sweet upfront the long, lingering and balanced finish slowly gives way to a milk chocolate-like lushness.

Limited Release — only four hundred and ninety two individually-numbered bottles exist.

Nose: The finest of balsamics, overripe figs, walnuts and freshly baked bread. Tar, old furniture and herbs. Honeycomb, muscatels, aragula leaves, dusty oak.

Palate: Prunes in Armagnac, baked apples with cinnamon and almonds, rosewater. Syrupy. Dark and very fine licorice, dark chocolate éclair, black forest cake.

Soufflé made with loads of Grand Marnier.

Finish: Visions of cavernous tunnels lined with dusty, dusty barrels, and sickly sweet and dark fortified aromas. Ripe cherries, coconut, cola, treacle, raisins and the most dense of Christmas cakes. A naughty dessert.

OVEREEM WHISKY

Old Hobart Distillery is a family-owned business. Casey Overeem's interest in the industry started back in the early 1980s when he had his first experience of distilling at a relative's house in Norway. "Many people had micro-distilleries in their cellars and I really admired them, so I started experimenting when I got home," said Casey. After much research, realisation dawned that Tasmania offers the perfect climate and ingredients for the production of single malt whisky. Following years of research and experimentation, Old Hobart Distillery secured a distiller's licence in 2005.

The Tasmanian Collection is a set of exceptional limited edition single cask whiskies blended from nine Tasmanian distilleries including Sullivans Cove, Lark, Overeem, Belgrove, McHenry, Redlands, Mackey, Iron House and Fanny's Bay.

In 2015 nine members of the Tasmanian Whisky Producers Association each donated twenty-litres of new make spirit to be expertly blended at Tasmania Distillery. The resultant spirit was then used to fill eleven purpose built casks, coopered and donated by Adam Bone of Tasmanian Cask Company.

A filled cask was then sent back to each distillery for maturation on site. The Tasmania Collection is a snapshot in time of the skills of the Tasmanian whisky industry, which perfectly captures the unique terroir and subtleties gained from maturation in distinctly different surroundings.

DEVIL'S DISTILLERY

Devils Distillery is a new world distillery. Located in Hobart's old industrial area in Moonah, this unexpected building is home to Tasmania's most contemporary Whiskeys. The team like to challenge the whiskey world by pushing the boundaries, this includes the cask types and the bottling strengths. All this is done as a push for people to think about what they are drinking.

Finish: Persistent and intriguing, with lingering notes of butterscotch, tobacco leaf and rhubarb. An eloquent display of fruits and spices, welcomes you back.

SPRING BAY DISTILLERY

Spring Bay Distillery is a new world distillery that leans heavily on tradition. Located on Tasmania's east coast, the flavour of our local sea salt makes its way into the rainwater we use for our products making our spirits sweet with a subtle maritime influence.

We use only the best ingredients and distil these in a 1200 litre copper pot still from renowned still maker Peter Bailly of Knapp Lower Still Makers. Our declining line-arm on our still ensures we capture oils from the spirit distillation. Our rich spirit therefore has a beautiful mouth feel.

MACKEY WHISKY - SHENE ESTATE

Mackey Whisky is triple distilled and unpeated (as are most Irish whiskeys), and Damian Mackey is the only Tasmanian distiller emulating the Irish style.

To date, a small number of casks have been released.

Shene Estate Distillery, established in 2014, is the most recent string to Shene's bow. Damian Mackey, head distiller, is of Irish stock, and he and wife Madeleine have been making whisky at Mackey's Distillery, for the past decade. Damian caught the distilling bug from old mate Bill Lark, for whom he worked as a young surveyor back in the early 1990s when Bill and Lyn, the pioneers of Tasmania's whisky industry, were starting off. In 2007, Damian established his own brand, and Mackey Whisky, released in 2015, is currently the only Irish-style whisky in production in the state.

NANT DISTILLING COMPANY

Just an hour from Hobart is our heartland, the historic Nant Estate (circa 1821). Today it is the proud home to the Nant Distilling Company, producers of the internationally renowned Nant Single Malt Whisky. In 2012, just four years after beginning commercial production, Nant Single Malt Whisky was catapulted to global renown when Jim Murray, the world's foremost whisky commentator, scored Nant Single Malt Whisky – American Oak Bourbon Wood 95.5 out of 100. This rarest of scores saw Nant rated among the top 50 whiskies in the world. 'Nant', meaning 'stream', was the name given by the first Welsh settlers to both the Valley and the Estate. This very stream meanders through Nant Estate and flows into the millpond; that powers the wheel that turns the stones that grist the malted barley – that also gives its name to Australia's only Highland Single Malt Whisky.

Both a source of power and a key ingredient in Nant's success, these pristine waters trace their source upstream to the river Clyde, which is fed from a million-year-old glacial lake in the mystical Tasmanian Highlands.

OLD KEMPTON DISTILLERY (FORMER REDLANDS DISTILLERY)

Originally known as the Green Ponds Hotel, the grand coaching inn built in 1842 for convict embezzler turned-innkeeper, William Ellis, was one of the finest inns on the road from Hobart to Launceston where weary travellers and their horses could rest overnight. The convict brick stables, once home to 22 horses, now houses Redlands' Tasmanian-made copper still.

50 | 30ml

Redland first cask strength release. French oak Pinot Noir Trio Cask #43 On the nose, toffee, caramel and raisins with warm spices and candied orange peel. Palate is hot sweet and smooth with hints of cherry and almonds. Long on the palate, warming the throat. Finishing with dry characters of burnt caramel.

Redlands Small Cask Matured | Port Cask | RD 067 | bottle #28 | 46%

45 | 30ml

A wonderfully enticing rich nose with hints of stone fruit, leather, musk, caramel and citrus. Buttery mouth feel opens to toffee/butterscotch with clean oak, soft alcohol and some green chilli spice hints. Sweet and delicate without cloying elements. A beautifully balanced dram with a lingering semi-sweet and elegant finish. Very appealing at full cask strength but water opens it up and lift the sweetness a little.

Redlands | Bourbon RD114 | bottle #9 | 64%

50 | 30ml

Nose: toasted caramel and stone fruit with oak, pantry spices and some citrus

Palate: freshly sawn oak, peach and pineapple sweetness, hints of orange with a lightness atypical of most bourbon cask offerings. Elegant florals intertwined with tropical fruit salad with light and clean oak tannins.

Finish: Medium to long but light, sweet and elegant.

Old Kempton Distillery | Pinot Cask OKD17 | Bottle #81 | Cask Strength | 64.9%

50 | 30ml

Nose: Rich leather and coffee/mocha, Old Gold Rum and Raisin chocolate, orange, fruit pudding, pantry spices.

Palate: Big, bold and robust. Spices, fruit, plums, cherries, cassia bark. Oily and rich. Classic Tasmanian single cask richness and character in abundance.

Finish: Long and delicious with slow fade to dryness of attractive tannins. A real grown-up's malt that speaks volumes for the quality cask and rich, malty spirit.

CORRA LINN DISTILLERY

Corra Linn Distillery is situated in Relbia overlooking the valley of the North Esk River. It is this pristine water that flows from the mountain reserves that forms the main ingredient of the whisky produced. Corra Linn Distillery prides itself in precision, small batch production using the finest Tasmanian ingredients. Quality malt, Tasmanian honey and oak barrels refashioned by Tasmania's renowned cooper, charred to specification, all assist in providing flavours during the ageing process.

Corra Linn | Port Cask | 53%

25 | 30ml

Nose: Toasted oak, light malt/grain notes, vanilla, cinnamon, banana, barley sugar, port soaked raisins

Palate: Rich round spicy flavours penetrating both sides of the mouth giving great body feel, with definite Christmas cake, port flavours coming through.

Finish: Oily and syrupy smooth finish with the flavours of dark rich chocolate and raisin/stollen and a hint of caramel that is soothing and lingers well

LAUNCESTON DISTILLERY

Launceston's first whisky distillery, the Caledonian Distillery, was established in 1824 and became one of the Colony's foremost distilleries. In 1839, the Distillation Prohibition Act was enacted – outlawing the distilling of spirits across the island. Since 1992 when the law was changed to allow for the first modern day distillery, Hobart has been home to a growing number of producers. Launceston Distillery is the first traditional whisky producer in Launceston to gain a production licence since the Caledonian closed nearly 180 years ago.

At Launceston Distillery we produce hand-crafted, small-batch whisky. Using traditional techniques and craftsmanship, Tasmanian malted barley and pure river water are combined to produce the finest quality single malt whisky. From grain to bottle everything happens under the roof of Hangar 17!
